

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The revival closes to-night.
Let's make main street a dandy!
Colds and lagrippe are prevalent.
It has been a great winter for the wood and coal man.

County court convenes in adjourned session next Monday.

Saw you ever before so cold a winter and no ice harvested?
All of our ice will have to be imported again next summer.

Preaching at the Baptist church Thursday night and nights following.
Everybody is glad that February with its snow and ice and blizzards is gone.

March winds, it is hoped, will not be so uncomfortable as February blizzards.

We have grand old walks. Let us have our main thoroughfare as good as the walks.

All services of the M. E. Church, South, will be held at the Tabernacle next Sunday.

The April term of circuit court convenes April 27th. A grand jury will be empaneled.

The revival meetings were attended largely last Sunday by men and women from "the country."

Mont Belcher, an old resident of Graniteville, died at that place Saturday, February 28th, at 7 A. M. aged 63 years.

Word has been received here that "Charley" Schneider, connected with the quarries at Graniteville, died in St. Louis Sunday.

Mrs. T. J. St. Louis offers her services as an experienced nurse to those desiring them. Call on or address her at Ironton.

The Silver Offering meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will be held with Mrs. Hattie Kindell, March 11th.

The coal shute at Bismarck was burned to the ground, yesterday. For a time some buildings in its vicinity were in danger, but energetic exertion saved them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Langdon and daughter left Hot Springs last Saturday for Texas, where they will spend a couple of weeks before returning to their home in the valley.

It is said that over two hundred and fifty have "come forward" at the present revival, and that the total collections will be between eight hundred and a thousand dollars.

Our Spring Showing of all that's new and novel in dress goods is more complete than ever before at so early a date. Call and inspect the new stock.

Miss Minnie Fisher is in St. Louis studying the styles in Millinery for Spring. Miss Fisher will again have charge of the millinery department for Lopez Store Co., the coming season.

How much longer are the people of Ironton going to do without a night man at the railroad station? If the matter were properly presented to the proper authorities we believe our petition would soon be granted. Why delay?

My old friend, W. H. Delano, yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of his sister, Miss Ellen S. Delano, at Ellington, Connecticut, Monday, March 2, at 4 P. M., aged 69 years. The remains will be brought to St. Louis for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKisken announce the marriage of their daughter, Nina Lee, to Mr. Harry Roland Fritz, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, February 14th, 1914. The groom and bride are now "at home" at Poplar Bluff. The REGISTER wishes them every happiness attendant upon a long and prosperous life.

One of my correspondents finds fault with me that I don't say more about the "revival" here. The REGISTER, by the kindness of "An Attendant," has given current account of the meetings. I tried to get the names of the converts, but was denied, on the score that "some of them might not like it." So there you are!

Official action was taken last week, during the presence of Presiding Elder, Mr. Court, to build a church for the Southern Methodist in Ironton. The Committee was appointed on location, plans, etc. The large majority of the members have always lived in Ironton, and this majority has been increased by the results of the revival.

Mrs. Wm. E. McGee and son of St. Louis stopped over Monday with Mr. and Mrs. August Block. Mrs. McGee had taken her daughter to the Arcadia college. From here they went to Jackson to visit the Ursuline Sisters there. Mrs. McGee is a cousin of the Rt. Rev. J. J. Hennessy, D. D., who is now stationed at Wichita, Kans.—Bismarck Gazette.

Franklay correspondence in the Farmington Times: "The box supper given by the Franklay brass band on last Friday night was a success. The receipts of the boxes were $11.00, and the cake for the most beautiful young lady present was won by Miss Blanche O'Neal, over Miss Flossie Clay by 5 votes. The receipts from the cake were $138.65; total, 149.65, which will be used for the benefit of the Franklay Brass Band."

The Misses Reese entertained informally at their home on Saturday, Feb. 28th, in honor of their birthdays. The time was spent in games which provoked shouts of laughter and which terminated in an old time spelling match. Prizes were given, but it would not be fair to tell who received them, because some of them were "booby prizes." After refreshments, the party attended the Moving Picture Show, and so ended the celebration, which all declared they had enjoyed. Those present were the Misses Marie Kindell, Blue Eyes Gross, Helen Jones, Marion Huff, Arline Tual, Leona Baldwin, Jessamine Woodside, Kathryn Damron, Lucille Jones, Helen Rosentreter, Columbia Elliott, Mildred Marshall.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held Monday night an ordinance was passed submitting to the voters of the City of Ironton a proposition to issue bonds in the sum of $5,000 for the purpose of macadamizing and graveling Main, Shepherd, Mountain, Iron, Knob, Hancock, Russell, Wayne, Reynolds, Madison, Dent, and St. Francois Streets. The estimated cost of Main Street—a solid rock foundation 6 inches deep and 20 feet wide—is $2,500. The following were named judges at the coming election, April 7th, 1914: Ward No. 1.—Walter Kindell, Wm. H. Whitworth, Harry Holand, Sr., Elmer Newman, Louis Baldwin, J. N. Bishop. Ward No. 2.—J. W. Allen, F. O. Codding, W. R. Hall, A. B. Reel, John Marshall, B. P. Burnham.

Dr. J. W. Hale, formerly an Iron County boy, is now a resident of Fowlerton, Texas. I learn from the Reporter of that town that the Dr. is at the head of a recently projected irrigation plant. Says that paper: "The requirements of the new Irrigation Law have all been complied with and the State Board of Water Engineers have issued him a permit to construct a dam across the foot of a series of lakes commonly known as the Calman Slough, which will, when completed, store enough water for the irrigation of several hundred acres of the very fertile lands lying adjacent to the large lake thus formed. Dr. Hale owns individually a beautiful tract of land situated at the lower end of these lakes which he intends to put in cultivation as soon as practicable."

From the Poplar Bluff Republican: "Otis Shaver, found guilty of attacking Mrs. Mary Gamble and now under sentence of death, this morning appealed his case to the Supreme Court of Missouri. The appeal was granted by Judge Ford. In this, of course, the court had no other alternative, as Shaver had complied with all the legal requirements. This appeal acts as a stay of execution, date of which had been fixed at March 20. However, it is believed there will be very little delay, as the case being one incorporating the death penalty will be advanced on the Supreme Court docket and probably passed on at a very early date. Circuit court held a brief session this morning, the Shaver case being the most important to come before it. Several civil actions also were disposed of, but these were of minor public interest."

The Revival.

The Burke-Hobbs revival meeting here in Ironton has been in progress three weeks with increasing interest every day. The last week has witnessed the high tide of the meeting both in interest and number of people accepting Christ.

The incidental collections have taken care of all local expenses. At no time has there been any uneasiness about finances.

Three hundred and twenty have signed cards declaring their intentions to live a christian life. The greater portion of these have indicated some church preference.

Good delegations from Pilot Knob, Graniteville, Bellevue, Iron Mountain, Irondale, Bismarck, Roselle and all stations south on the Railroad as far as Des Arc, have been in attendance the past week and among them have been a number of conversions.

In spite of the fact that the weather and the roads have been the worst we have had this winter the tabernacle has been practically filled every service: under ordinary conditions hundreds of people would have been turned away. Every feature of the revival has been a surprise. The building of the tabernacle in the midst of a snow-storm in three days, the large results in the number of conversions and the unprecedented offering made to the Evangelists.

Sunday afternoon Mr. C. P. Damron made a brief statement of the work of the Evangelists and asked the congregation for a collection. Donations from one dollar up to twenty-five were subscribed until the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars was contributed. Although this was a smaller amount than they often receive, the Evangelists were well pleased with the spirit and the sum contributed.

This contribution shows that the Ironton people are willing to do the right thing.

Rev. Burke said he was told that Ironton was the worst town in South-east Missouri, but he found this people had been misrepresented. He said he had never found a more cultured, refined, intelligent people anywhere.

The sermons Sunday, as well as the previous Sundays, were free from the objections which some have raised about Mr. Burke's rough expressions. The sermon on Forgiveness, Sunday morning, was a gem of pure loving gospel and will continue in the lives of the vast congregation who hung upon his words.

Bro. Aspley said he had known this valley for fifty years and there had never been a spiritual awakening like this in all that time.

The following out of town ministers were in attendance: A. S. Baldridge of Flat River, M. H. Markley of Elvins, Rev. Lyle of Caledonia, Rev. Blaese of Bellevue, Wm. Stewart of Bismarck and Presiding Elder Wm. Court of Farmington, and a number of others whose names we did not get.

Rev. Hobbs in making the announcements Sunday night for the continuation of the meeting made the following remarks: "When we arrived in Ironton, we were informed that it was impossible to have a revival in the valley; it was said the court house would never be filled, but it was; it was said it was impossible to build a tabernacle in three days, but you did; it was said that it would never be filled, but it was; it was said the evening offering would not pay the expenses, but it did; it was said they would never have a hundred conversions, but there have been three hundred and twenty already saved. Praise the Lord." AN ATTENDANT.

School Notes.

The meeting of the Mother's and Patron's League is postponed one week on account of the illness of its president, Mrs. Francis. The program for this meeting has been prepared by the various rooms of the school and consists of contests, exhibits and general patrons day. The school joins the committee in inviting every mother and patron to be present. Come, you will enjoy the program and the meeting with your friends, next Wednesday at 2:30 P. M.

The Graduating class in the Teachers' training course made a visit to Arcadia last Friday to observe the methods, plans and devices of Miss Nannie Ringo. Knowing Miss Nannie as we all do it is needless to say the young teachers got a great many good things from her work. Miss Nannie is considered one of the best primary teachers in the state.

The visit of the fourth grade pupils to the tie yard and wood stock mill has called forth the remarks that the children would never be tie makers or log haulers. But we would suggest that an idea gained in one field of knowledge may be applied in any field where it is applicable. Watt studied a tea-kettle and gave us the principle of the steam engine. Newton studied a falling apple and gave us the law of gravity. Let us not despise the things that are common. They have greater lessons than the vast and incomprehensible.

The last month has been the worst month on attendance this year—much worse than last year. Several of the pupils are sick but we are inclined to think some of the parents are negligent about sending [the children]. Intelligent people should not need a compulsory law to keep their children in school. Let us not neglect the children.

There is nothing more gratifying to us than the spirit of love and co-operation exhibited in the Burke and Hobbs revival meetings. The great good accomplished is a monument to it. Now let us carry the same spirit into our schools and city. With every one doing his or her part we can do for them what has been done for the churches.

The boys of the sixth grade dramatized the historical account of Fort Mackinac. They dressed as Indians, brought tomahawks, knives and guns which made the fight very spectacular. The council of war, ambassadors' conference with the whites and the pipe of peace all found their place in the vivid representation and were acted out with great feeling.

Teachers' Examination.

The next regular examination will be held in the public school building Ironton, Friday and Saturday, March 6th and 7th, 1914.

Firelight Dreams.

I love to sit in the firelight's ruddy glow,
Watch the changing pictures come and go,
And dream of Arcadia
A country dear to me.

Of winding lanes 'neath the oak and maple's shade,
For wandering happy youth and strolling lovers made,
To the crystal streams
And nooks for dreams.

Of many a flowery dell in some quiet sylvan retreat,
Where the wild bird's note rang clear and sweet.
Under summer skies
Blue as a baby's eyes.

Of deep clear water pools on a bright June day,
Where fish make goo-goo eyes and swim away,
When they see the crook
Of the baited hook.

Of majestic towering heights whereon the sunlight sleeps,
And where at eventide the changing purple shadow creeps—
That I love to see
In dear old Arcadia.

—EDWARD CYPILTON THORNTON.

FOR RENT—Small farm, 40 acres, 3 1/2 miles South of Ironton; 30 acres in cultivation. House, Barn and Garden; Well and Spring Water. For terms, see SOUTH SIDE DRUG STORE.

Des Arc News.

We are having the last end of winter. Very cold to-day. (Sunday.) I was at Leeper Friday night. I heard the spring frogs a-skawking and I thought the winter was gone. Farmers are buying potatoes and onion sets for spring. Potatoes are much cheaper than we expected.

Mr. McCannan, father of Conductor McCannan, has bought the old Hopkins farm, six miles northeast of Des Arc. He bought it through our land agent, C. M. Stevenson. We are looking for more land buyers here this week.

The tie business is slow. Farmers are fixing to go farming.

I was at Greenville last week. The first time for years. I saw-milled all through that section in 1895, consequently I know everybody in and around Greenville. I did some business there and will go there every two weeks. The merchants there carry large stocks of goods. I counted 85 sacks of millet seed in Sam Malugen's store. I told him he was over stocked. He said, "No they won't last thirty days." Their trade is mostly with farmers: the men behind the plow.

Mrs. John Stevenson was called to Hendrickson Sunday, owing to the illness of her mother, Mrs. Anne Graham, who has pneumonia.

Mrs. Walter Parker who has been visiting at the home of her father, W. T. Stevenson, returned to her home in St. Louis to-day.

Mrs. R. H. Stevenson and Mrs. W.

McKee attended the revival at Ironton Thursday.

Jack Eustus came up from Hoxie to visit his sister, Mrs. T. L. Morris. His sister, Miss Lottie Eustus, accompanied him on his return to Dexter, Mo., where she will enter a Business College.

Mrs. Wm. Hughes and son Paul, accompanied by Mrs. T. P. Fitz, attended the meeting in Ironton Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Parker and Miss Eva Stevenson were visitors to Williams-ville, Wednesday.

Mrs. George Phillips and son Frank are visiting her parents at Valley Park, Mo.

Ode Medley and wife, of Hoxie, Ark., are visiting relatives here. Jas. Lovelace, Jr., from Doniphan, spent Sunday here with his family.

C. L. Stevenson has returned to Libourne.

L. L. Schmitt went to Piedmont Wednesday of last week.

A. B. Daniels was a Piedmont visitor last Saturday.

C. S. Fitz, of Poplar Bluff was in town Saturday.

Marshall Stevenson came up from Taskee Saturday, to visit his mother.

Miss Stella Reed has returned home from St. Louis.

Ed. Hickman went to St. Louis Thursday.

Cicero Stevenson, with his family, are visiting relatives at Taskee.

Wm. Pate has moved into his new home. ISAAC.

Will some one stand up and tell us what has become of the Puxico Iron Company?

Annapolis News.

Clear and pretty to-day. High winds Saturday night, blowing everything found loose, where it pleased.

Several boys and men were windy last night. Some of them tried to fight, but made a failure when it came to a show-down it was only the beer and whiskey that were tangled up.

Sarah J. Campbell is boxing up her household goods and will move them to her son's, Coot Campbell, out near Roselle, east of Arcadia about eight miles, where she will make her home for the future.

Lottie Campbell and three of her children of Roselle are visiting Esquire Kitchell and family. Her mother, Mrs. Maberry, accompanied her here and is paying a visit to old acquaintances and seeing the town of Annapolis.

R. C. Knight of Graniteville was in Annapolis the past week on business. James Middleton tells me he has purchased himself a small farm and will go on it and keep Bachelor's Hall this summer coming.

J. C. Warnock is up and about again and made a trip to Ironton the past week.

Anell Hakes and wife have been in critical condition the past week, and reported gone crazy; but are now much better, and it is hoped it will not turn out as bad as it was thought for at first.

Ben Johnson of Bear Branch came in town Saturday and put in the day and night on business, and it is reported he has bought John Q. Webb out, root and branch; consideration twenty-eight hundred dollars. I think Ben lacked a little more money and went in home to-day to get it up.

Esquire Kitchell had a call to Sabula March 2d on some notary business.

Henry Francis of Sabula, Mo., was in Annapolis Sunday. He is one of Sabula's most influential merchants, but is closing out to Loss Hughes, his partner.

James Colanback, one of the block system men of this place, has resigned his job and will go to Colorado Springs, Colorado, in the near future, and expects to locate there. He and his family went out to his father-in-law, Green Brewster, on Black River, to-day, to pay them a visit before leaving this country.

William Sutton and Pete Young went below Saturday to look at a saw mill that is for sale and report everything in good shape, and may in the near future buy the outfit.

There were two whole layers—six pieces—of tin roofing blown off the top of Charles E. Bolch's store Saturday night, and some of it carried fifty yards or more.

G. A. Buxton's have all moved to their saw mill on Collyette Hollow in Reynolds County, Missouri, the saw mill formerly owned by Wm. Sutton.

Ed. Robinson's wife, standing by a heating stove Sunday at their home at W. I. Keathley's mill on Hyatts creek, her clothing caught fire and she and her husband were badly burned. Mr. Robinson was burned tearing her clothes from her so badly he will not be able to work for some time, and the woman may not live over it.
